ELECTRICITY RATES REDUCED FOR STREET LIGHTING, PUMPING, SCHOOLS, IN 58 TEXAS CITIES

The reduction of electricity rates for city street lights, pumping, and school lighting in Canyon which was announced in this paper last week is similar to reductions made in 58 Texas cities which have the Texas Utilities Company to furnish them electricity, according to Judge I. R. Kelso, president of the Texas Utilities Company.

"We treat all our communities alike," Mr. Kelso said in his talk before various officials of Panhandle companies and prominent local men and city officers, "and this same reduction we give to Canyon will be extended to the others also."

Mr. Kelso in a brief way outlined to those present his company's plans to do its part in "carrying on" in the communities served by it.

"We are trying to cooperate," he said, "with the various towns on Texas Utilities Company lines in the matter of working out emergency relief measures to help take care of financial problems now confronting many of our towns thru no fault of the territory served. Many of the towns are suffering temporarily, nothwithstanding the wonderful crops being produced in this territory, solely because of a world-wide depression for which this territory is in no way responsible."

Mr. Kelso pointed out that the Texas Utilities Company now serves a region as large as the entire state of Pennsylvania, that the supplying of electrical accommodations to all the people of this territory had long been a dream of his, which just now is approaching realization, although begun some 15 or more years ago. He called the domain reached by Texas Utilities company a veritable agriculture empire and expressed a sense of pride in the part his company has taken in leading developments forward to the present state of use. The inter-network of high lines has been made possible to the entire region an electrical service comparable only with that of the largest metropolitan cities and at a rate for consumption undreamed of several years ago. This had been done by modern-dya systems of generating and distributing electricity.

Saying his mission during the trip over the Plains was to do what he could to help, Judge Kelso soon explained what was his plan of procedure. He simply stated that the Texas Utilities Company was reducing the cost of street lighting to one half of the prior cost, the cost of electric service to the schools 75 per cent over the 1930 charges, and the pumping rate to two cents per kilowatt hour with the understanding that if any tax is imposed this tax shall be added to the rate of two cents and that this does not apply to pumping done at Texas Utility Company wells.

The City of Canyon through its governing body and a committee of citizens passed a resolution at a meeting held at the City Hall to express the appreciation of Canyon citizens for the reduction to the rates.

The committee was composed of R. A. Bellah, R. P. Jarrett, Grady Oldham, C. H. Jarrett, T. C. Thompson, and C. N. Harrison.

City Commission Adopts Resolution To Lower Gas Rate

The City Commission met Wednesday afternoon and adopted a resolution similar to one adopted by 592 other Texas towns seeking to have the Railroad Commission investigate the natural gas rates for domestic purposes in Texas, since the Railroad Commission was given the regulation and control of the gas utilities in Texas.

The resolution in part reads as follows:

"Be It Resolved By The City Commission of the City of Canyon, that we respectfully urge that the Honorable Railroad Commission of Texas proceed as practicable to institute such proceedings as may be necessary in the exercise of their jurisdiction to fix, establish, and determine proper rate schedules and structures showing fair, reasonable and just charges to be made by gas utilities engaged in the business of producing and transporting natural gas from the wells to cities and towns for domestic consumption, in order that the duty that has been imposed upon the governing body of this city to regulate the rates to be paid by its citizens for natural gas may be effectively discharged."

College Students To Be Allowed To Take Music Alone

The West Texas State Teachers College is allowing new privileges to those students who wish to take work in the department of music according to Wallace R. Clark, head of the department.

Because of the prevailing economic conditions, pupils will be enrolled for private lessons in the department of music without enrolling for other work in the college. This will save the student who wants only music a considerable sum. This plan will enable students who wish to study piano, voice, singing, violin or band intruments to do so without attending any other classes at the college.

The new plan in the music department is the second announced by the administration of the West Texas State Teachers College to cut down expenses for students during the prevalent hard times. The first announcement made by Dr. J. A. Hill was that of book rental which will save every student several dollars per term, giving basic texts, together with admission to college activities for a fee of six dollars.

Dairymen Hold Annual Barbecue on Upchurch Farm

Members of the Randall County Dairyman's Association, their families, invited guests and their families, last Friday held their annual barbecue on the J. P. Upchurch farm. The attendance at this third annual barbecue and picnic of the association eclipsed previous records when between 650 and 700 people attended.

A precedent of several years standing in the dairyman's association was carried out in that no long program was held and no long speeches made. Only three men appeared as speakers and their remarks ewre brief. These men were: District Judge Henry S. Bishop, Wilbur C. Hawk, and T. C. Thompson.

In his address Judge Bishop congratulated the dairymen on their determination to "carry on" with their annual picnic in spite of the conditions and upon their spirit of enterprise and program of work.

Mr. Hawk thanked the dairymen on behalf of the other Amarillo guests present for the courtesies of the occasion, and invited the hosts to join in the excursion to Albuquerque next week and to join in making the Tri-State Fair the biggest and best in its history.

Mr. Thompson in his few remarks, passed out a bit of lasting philosophy when he urged the group to "smile and work—and then work and smile." He praised the progressiveness of the association, and the unwaivering efforts to meet the conditions over which they have no control. Jess Upchurch presided in the absence of M. H. Rockwell, president of the association.

The barbecue, prepared by John Snyder and assistants, consisted of 800 pounds of barbecued beef and mutton. The trimmings included buns, pickles, and onions; a wash boiler of beans; gallons of coffee; several barrels of lemonade; dozens of cakes and pies; 40 gallons of ice cream and a ton of watermelons. The watermelons were donated by T. C. Thompson.

In the afternoon, the annual baseball game between the milk producers and the employees of the creamery plants was played. The country boys took the city kids to a cleaning by a score of 13 to 10.

Mrs. T. V. Reeves was out of her office at the College Tuesday on account of illness.

She suffered severe lacerations of the left leg and internal injuries. Members of the family rushed her by automobile to the hospital. Loss of blood and the internal injuries are believed to have been responsible for her death.

American Legion Allowed Exemption From Income Taxes

Palo Duro Post No. 97 of the American Legion received word the latter part of last week that its claim to exemption from Federal income taxation has been granted and that no returns for 1929 and 1930 need be made, according to Captain W. E. Lockhart, Monday.

Exemption was granted because the organization is a "purely benevolent, charitable, fraternal, educational and patriotic one" to promote in every way possible the welfare of the men and women who served the United States of America in any branch of the military forces during the World War, "and because the income and assets of the corporation are used only in the furtherance of the purposes set forth in the charter."

Future returns will not be required as long as there is no change in the organization, its purposes, or its method of doing business.

"Inasmuch as The American Legion, Palo Duro Post No. 97, is an organization of war veterans in the United States and no part of the net earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, contributions made thereto constitute allowable reductions in the income tax returns of individual donors, in the manner and to the extent provded by secton 23 (n) of the Revenue Act of 1928," according to the letter received by Captain Lockhart from J. C. Wilmer, deputy commissioner in the office of Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

REPRESENTATIVES OF LABOR GROUPS PETITION OFFICIALS TO PROTECT LOCAL WORKERS

Representatives of the various laboring crafts met in the County Court Room last Friday night, August 14, and elected a committee composed of men from each of the building trades in Canyon to draw up a petition addressed to the City Commission, the Commissioners Court, and the Chamber of Commerce to take the proper steps in the form of ordinances or other legislation to protect the citizens of Canyon from the importation of outside labor.

The committee, H. W. Cabe, S. H. Jones, A. C. West, and Sandy Norris, said Tuesday that every business man who had been asked to sign the petition had done so.

The more important part of the petition follows:

"That on each and every contract for public work entered into by the City of Canyon and the County of Randall, preference be given to local bona fide contractors for that particular class of work, all other things being equal; and should such contract or contracts be awarded to individuals or firms not bona fide citizens of Canyon and Randall County, that such contract or contracts be let with the clause inserted that any labor, both skilled and unskilled, shall be given to local bona fide citizens so long as the said labor can be supplied locally, all other requirements being equal. That there be appointed a committee composed of representatives from each class of labor who shall with the Mayor of Canyon, pass on that part of any and all contracts let by the City of Canyon, and said committee shall act with the County Judge of Randall County, likewise in passing on such items in contracts let by the County Commissioners, this committee having no other power except to see that this clause be carried out in any manner they shall hereafter see fit."

The petition also asks that preference be given to bona fide citizens who are heads of families, that bona fide citizens and not heads of families be given second choice, and that transients who might meet the needs of the committee be given third choice, all other qualifications being equal.

Natural Gas Rates Reduced, Company Announces Tuesday

A reduction in natural gas rates, applying over a five-month winter period to both domestic and industrial users and to schools and colleges, was announced Tuesday by headquarters offices of the West Texas Gas Company at Lubbock.

The announcement was made by R. F. Hinchey, vice president and general manager of the concern, who said the reduction would affect all of the 42 West Texas cities and towns located on the company's lines, including Canyon.

According to the new rate schedule, a cut of approximately 15 per cent will be made to domestic and commercial users after the first 6,000 cubic feet have been burned in each of November, December, January, February and March. Where users have been paying 67½ cents per 1,000 cubic feet of gas up to 50,000 cubic feet, they will pay 67½ cents per thousand for the first 6,000 feet, and 57½ cents for each additional thousand up to 50,000.

Schools and colleges will profit, the company official said, by dropping service charges from the secondary, or commercial schedule to the industrial bracket, lowest offered by the concern.

TO BOARDING HOUSE KEEPERS:

The West Texas State Teachers Association of the Panhandle Plains counties will convene in Canyon, September the 3, 4, and 5th. Teachers from a number of counties and towns will come to Canyon for this three-day institute program. The Boarding house committee desires to get in touch with those who desire to furnish meals or rooms or both during this time.

Cousins Hall plans to furnish seven meals, and room for two nights, for three dollars, and Randall Hall plans to furnish rooms without meals for one dollar per day. The committee thinks this is a reasontble rate to charge for the time the visitors are here. Some of those who attend go back and forth from their home communities while others are here for a part of the time, only. Hence, the boarding housekeepers will find it necessary to work out their plans with the people who ask for accomodations.

The committee is asking those interested in keeping people to write a letter explaining what they desire in the way of numbers and whether they will furnish rooms or meals or both. Also, state whether men or women are desired. The committee prefers that the information be given in the form of a letter rather than over the telephone because of the time saved and the added convenience.

Address all information to W. L. Vaughan, Canyon, Texas.

THE OIL LEGISLATION

By Clyde W. Warwick
Representative 123rd District

The writer attempted to become a prophet for last week's issue of the News and predict what was going to happen. Before the article had been placed in type, the Senate tore up our little play house, ditched the House Bill and surprised the administration by passing a substitute bill of Senator Rawlings of Fort Worth which was neither a conservation bill nor a regulatory bill. As a matter of fact it emanated from a group of Senators who are recognized to be anti-administrative in thought, word and deed.

As a matter of fact it looked very doubtful up until Wednesday as to whether or not the special session would produce any sort of an oil bill. It was freely predicted that the obstructionists in the Senate were successful in embarrassing the administration to the fullest degree. This prediction was based upon the fact that it was generally recognized before the session was called that this would be a political session; that too many members were more interested in their own political fortune than in the general welfare of the State.

There was consternation in the camp of the enemy after the Rawlings bill was finally passed late Saturday night and the oil men of the State rose in a body and demanded that something be done to save the independent operators. It would have been a comical situation were it not so serious. The seventeen senators who had jumped the fence to oppose the administration proceeded to flock back into the fold with the greatest rapidity. They realized that the people of Texas meant business in demanding that if possible the oil men be saved from immediate disaster.

Governor Sterling emerged from this session stronger than he was at the start. The charges against him of receiving four hundred thousand dollars from the Standard Oil Company fell flat. It was a legitimate loan such as many big oil companies make and only one of the hundreds which the big oil companies make in the development of their business.

The Governor lost in only one particular feature in this session. He asked a tax of 2 cents per barrel be placed upon oil rather than collect a 2 per cent on the value of the oil. He was doing his best to save the state treasury. His proposal was unjust for the small operators. The House passed a bill imposing the graduated tax. The idea was good but the machinery to put into operation was too cumbersome and too expensive. The bill was killed in the Senate and should have been killed.

Rumors and more rumors have spread rapidly through the capitol corridors as to the immediate future. All lobbyists agree that there will be another special session in January or February. They base their prediction upon the fact that the treasury is depleted; that the State faces a deficit of several million; that property values have greatly declined; that farm products are worthless; that taxes are going to be hard to collect and the delinquent list is going to rapidly increase. Lobbyists are always opposed to taxes but in this instance they can see no other way out.

Other rumors are that Governor Sterling will not ask for a second term. Clint Small is being most freely mentioned as a likely candidate. Commissioner J. E. McDonald has announced he will be a candidate for governor and sponsor the cotton acreage reduction bill. Furthermore it is rumored that Pat M. Neff, a former governor and now a member of the Railroad Commission, will take his case to the people. Neff was ousted as chairman of this commission. He admits that the commission has done nothing about the oil situation. With this new law at their disposal if the commission does nothing this fall the voters will turn thumbs down on the commissioners who are up for reelection next year and it would not be at all surprising to see impeachment charges filed against all members of the commission. This oil business is serious and the people are demanding that something be done.

Probably the bill which helped the small independents more than any other, was the pipe line bill. This bill is hard to understand by those not engaged in the oil business, as is also the general oil bill passed in the closed session. Nevertheless, both bills are pronounced good by those who best know their effect.

The Legislature finally passed on Wednesday the bill providing for the purchase of the Goodnight buffalo herd. It is specifically directed that a sufficient body of land be donated to the state to care for the herd. It is proposed that there shall be established a general game preserve and fish hatchery for Northwest Texas. If the public spirited people of Northwest Texas succeed in buying the Goodnight ranch, or land adjacent thereto, it means the beginning of the Palo Duro Park which has long been the ambition and desire of the people of Northwest Texas.

It is regretable that the congressional redistricting bill failed. The Senate demanded that East Texas be given a new district in spite of the fact that it was not entitled to one. This means there will be three congressmen-at-large to be elected next year unless a special session early in the year should redistrict. This is not likely.

The dairymen of West Texas are again disappointed that the Senate failed to place a tax on oleomargarine. This bill was passed again this session by a large majority in the House.

The Senate elected Senator Clint Small as President Pro Tem. in the final session Wednesday, every member speaking in a most complimentary manner of his splendid work in this body.

The House started to work Thursday morning on the impeachment charges against Judge J. B. Price of Bastrop who has confessed that he was careless and negligent in approving accounts of the sheriffs of his district. He agreed to submit to a rebuke from the Speaker and his friends made an earnest appeal that this be sufficient.

The House turned down this proposition, and voted to drop the proceedings if he would resign. This the Judge refused to do, and testimony was started. Just how long it will take to conclude the evidence is hard to predict in advance.

One thing is certain, the state has been robbed in the past by the sheriffs who have presented excessive fee bills to the district judges, too many of whom have been negligent in approving the same without proper investigation. The State Comptroller states that fee bills have been reduced 75 percent since the investigation was started in the spring. This means that the court officials have been put on notice that this practice must stop, and are afraid to present these excessive charges. Another thing is certain, that the fee system is all wrong. State and county officials should be paid salaries instead of fees. So long as the fee system continues there will be abuses. The only way to correct the evil is to do away with it.

Taxpayers of Clovis Show Appreciation to New Mexico Utilities Company

The following resolutions were adopted by the City Commissioners and Mass Meeting of Citizens assembled at the City Hall in Clovis, Tuesday, August 12th, following the announcement of the New Mexico Utilities Co. of the substantial donation on street lighting and also a decided reduction in the cost of light service to the schools and to the City Hall:

RESOLUTION:

(1). Whereas: I. R. Kelso, president of Texas Utilities Company and president of New Mexico Utilities Company, has announced the policy of co-operating with the various towns on the interconnected electric net work of New Mexico Utilities Company and Texas Utilities Company lines in the matter of working out emergency relief measures to help take care of financial problems now confronting many towns served by these companies, through no fault of the territory served; the policy in regard to emergency relief has been adopted by Texas Utilities Company and New Mexico Utilities Company because many towns on their lines are suffering temporarily notwithstanding the wonderful crops being produced in this territory, solely because of a world wide depression for which the territory served is in no way responsible.

(2). Whereas: At the date of the sale of our water and light utilities by the City of Clovis to New Mexico Utilities Company in October 1925, our City tax rate as the result of said sale was reduced from $17.50 to $7.50 on each $1000.00 valuation of city property.

(3). Whereas: On this date said New Mexico Utilities Company, through Hon. I. R. Kelso and other representatives of said Company, has made known to the governing body and citizens of Clovis its decision, as a voluntary action on its part, and as donation to said city and the tax payers, effective as of August 1, 1931, and for a period of one year thereafter, to reduce the cost of the street lighting in said city to one-half the cost prevailing on and prior to said date, and has further taken voluntary action reducing the rate for its service to our schools, which is a reduction of approximately 75 per cent over the 1930 charges; it being understood that in the event that the legislature of New Mexico or any other lawful taxing power or authority shall impose any tax on or affecting the service supplied the schools and city increasing the cost of frunishing same, such tax shall be added to and become a part of said rate and be paid by said city and schools.

(4). Whereas: The action of said New Mexico Utilities Company in the matters aforesaid effects a great saving financially to our city, schools and tax payers, the saving in street lighting amounting to $1659.00 Aug. 1, 1931 to Aug. 1, 1932, the saving to schools based on 1930 consumption being $320.84, the saving in city hall light and other city service being $365.70, all aggregating $2345.44; and in addition thereto said New Mexico Utilities Company is one of our largest taxpayers, its current taxes to our schools and to the cities of Curry County and to the state and Curry County in the sum of $13,455.94, and in addition to the donation on street lighting for one year, the reduction to our schools and city hall lighting is the seventh substantial reduction made by the company since acquiring the property from the city of Clovis in October, 1925.

(5). Whereas: Said New Mexico Utilities Company has heretofore from time to time reduced its rates in the City of Clovis, each and every such reduction having been made voluntarily by said Company; and

(6). Whereas: The aforesaid action by said Company is fully appreciated by the City of Clovis and the citizens thereof, and is convincing to all of said company's generous spirit of helpfulness to the Community and of its willingness to serve the community at the lowest possible cost and at all times to deliver to the public water, lights and power service second to none and to do its full part freely and voluntarily to lessen the financial burden of its patrons, and at considerable financial loss, during the time of financial and industrial depression; and

(7). Whereas, we wish to say that in our opinion if all the Utilities serving the people of the State of New Mexico maintained the same generous and helpful attitude toward the Communities served by them as has always been maintained by the New Mexico Utilities Company, there would be no demand or need for any kind of State regulation, and we wish to express to the public and to said New Mexico Utilities Company and to its President, Judge I. R. Kelso, and to its other officials and representatives our appreciation for its generous attitude and spirit of helpfulness; THEREFORE

(8). BE IT RESOLVED, by the City of Clovis, acting by and through the governing body and Committee of Citizens, in meeting this day held at the City Hall in the City of Clovis, that we do hereby express to the said New Mexico Utilities Company and to Hon. I. R. Kelso and other officers, agents and representatives of said Company, our sincere appreciation of its and their kindly attitude of co-operation, generosity, fair treatment and efficient service it now renders and has at all times rendered, and that we as citizens, taxpayers, business men and officials do hereby pledge to our governing body, to said New Mexico Utilities Company, and to each other our friendly and mutual co-operation in working out, on an efficient and economical basis, all problems that affect and concern our mutual interests.

(9). BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be delivered to Hon. I. R. Kelso, as the president and Representative of said New Mexico Utilities Company, and a copy hereof also delivered to the Mayor and Governing Body of the City of Clovis, and a copy delivered to the Board of Trustees of the Clovis School District No. 1 and a copy delivered to the Clovis Chamber of Commerce.

Executed at Clovis, New Mexico, this 11th day of August, A. D., 1931, by Resolution Committee of Citizens of Clovis, in a meeting at the City Hall.

NED HOUK, Mayor JAS. T. STALKER, City Commissioner City Commissioner Ross absent from the City.

Miss Mary Lockwood Sternenberg, bride-elect of Howard Batchelder, and popular honoree the past several weeks, was again complimented Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. William Ash, Mrs. F. E. Savage, Mrs. Clyde McElroy, Mrs. Charles Dowlen and Mrs. J. M. Simpson of Amarillo entertained with a surprise bridal shower in her honor. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Ash, 1009 Sixth avenue.

The guests arrived at 3:30 and the honoree, completely surprised, was introduced to the group at 4 o'clock. The bridal colors of orchid and pink were carried out in the decorative scheme. Miss Sternenberg was seated on a low bench decorated with crepe paper in the favored colors, and the guests were seated on floor cushions around her. Behind her stood a large basket of dahlias and to one side a bouquet of pink roses. Vases of sweet Sultans in delicate pastel shades were observed about the rooms, and the dining table was centered with a bowl of phlox and silver king.

After the honoree was seated the guests sang in chorus "I Offer You Congratulations" and several popular love songs. The shower gifts were presented in a most unusual way. Little Miss Mary Carolyn Black and Master Thomas Knighton, Jr. appeared in the doorway dressed in aviation costumes and were introduced as "Col. and Mrs. Chas. A. Lindbergh," who had arrived on an important mission. They brought in a toy airplane carrying the chosen colors and loaded with gift packages, which were presented to the honoree.

After the packages were opened a delicious refreshment course was served. Miss Sternenberg was presented a bouquet of pink roses and the guests received corsages of sweet peas as favors.

Just as refreshments were being served, a special delivery package arrived for Miss Sternenberg. This proved to be a chest of silver from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sternenberg.

The list of invited guests included: Miss Sternenberg, guest of honor; Miss Pearl McClure, Miss Hazel Allen, Miss Josephine Duflot, Miss Evelyn Shanklin, Miss Christine Upchurch, Miss Alta Williams, Miss Ruth Greenfield, Mrs. W. MRS. LOTTIE WILLIAMS ENTERTAINS THURSDAY

Mrs. Lottie Williams entertained the members of the As You Like It Club at the home of Miss Mary E. Hudspeth, 1905 Fourth Avenue, Thursday afternoon.

BUSINESS WOMEN ARE GUESTS AT DINNER BRIDGE

Mrs. E. L. Braudt and Miss Velma Thomas entertained the members of the Business Woman's club with a dinner bridge at the home of the former, 910 Eighth Avenue, Tuesday evening.

MISS LENNA FOSTER HONORS HOUSE GUEST

Complimenting her house guest, Miss Mildred Day of Clovis, N. M., Miss Lenna Foster entertained with one of the most clever parties of the season Friday afternoon. The affair was held at the Foster cabin at the Country club.

In keeping with the rustic setting the guests wore colorful afternoon pajamas. The interior of the cabin was profusely decorated with summer flowers, and as bridge was the chosen diversion, the table accessories followed summer designs.

At the close of the games Miss Day was presented a lovely guest favor. High score prize went to Miss Jessie Loudder and consolation to Miss Anna Foster. A refreshing iced course was served.

Those present included: Miss Day, honoree; Miss Ethel Ruth Collins, Miss Dannie Mack Stewart, Miss Wilmoth Gamble, Miss Frances Usery, Miss Jessie Loudder, Miss Georgia Whittenburg, Miss Sara Moore, Miss Ethel Brasuel, Miss Audry Cayton, Miss Anna Foster, Mrs. Robt. WARWICK PRINTING COMPANY

Miss Mable Rowan Gives Interesting Articles to P.H.S.

A set of cotton cards first used by a bride in Wise County more than 62 years ago were given this week to the Museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. They were the gift of Miss Mable Rowan of Amarillo and were once the property of her grandmother, Mrs. John Rowan.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowan removed from Wise County many years ago and became prominent citizens of Canyon.

Other gifts from Miss Rowan included a pistol made in 1854, and a copy of the Chicago Daily Tribune for September 1898. This contains a long interview given by General Wm. R. Shafter, telling of the fall of the Spanish power in Eastern Cuba, and the story of Aguinaldo's plea to the great powers of the world to recognize the Filipinos.

A Quincy, Illinois Daily Journal of September 6, 1901, telling of the assassination of McKinley, and of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram, giving an account of the death of President Wilson were also given.

Thomas R. Fickey of Canyon has recently given to the museum a collection of flints and arrowheads which were found in the Palo Duro Canyon. Only a few Indian relics have been found there. It is generally believed that Indians spent much time there but that relics left by them were swept down the canyon by torrents of water and buried deeply beneath the surface.

Do your shopping in Canyon.

Mateer Excavating Party Finds Rare Geology Fossils

An almost complete skeleton of a three-toed horse about the size of a dog and of a type which roamed this region in past geological ages was unearthed this week in the locality of Clarendon.

A party, headed by W. D. Mateer of the faculty of the College, and under the guidance of Ed McAdams of Clarendon, made the discovery; the only bones which are missing are the ribs. The skull, vertebrae and legs are complete. Bill Skelton, a graduate of W. T. made the outstanding discovery of the four day trip, but William Strain, another student, found an almost perfect jaw and legs of another three toed horse, and parts of a sloth, camel, and teeth, jawbones and other parts of animals not yet identified, were brought in.

The party went from Canyon to Clarendon where they were joined by Mr. McAdams and Eby Stocking. Mr. McAdams has worked for many years with expeditions sent out by the University of California, Yale, Texas, Southern Methodist University, and the Smithsonian Institution, helping them to find, select and preserve specimens for their collections. He is probably the most experienced fossil hunter in the entire southwest, and he and Mr. Stocking pronounced Skelton's find the next most perfect of its kind that has been unearthed anywhere in the United States up to this time. Mr. Mateer said that the services of Mr. McAdams were invaluable in guiding and instructing the excavators and in showing them how to identify and care for the specimens which they found. He and Mr. Stocking worked in the pit for four full days, giving their time and energy because of their interest in the work, and in order that the fossils might be saved for the museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society. A mastodon skeleton will be secured by Mr. McAdams for the museum as soon as the building is ready to receive it.

While in Clarendon the Mateer party was given several fine specimens which had been found by Fred Chamberlain and Bill Cook and given to Jerome Stocking who had exhibited them in his store there. These were placed in the hands of L. F. Sheffy for the museum.

The skeletons of the tiny horses will have to be carefully prepared for exhibition and it is stated here they will not be ready to show for several weeks.

News in Canyon 25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Canyon City News, Friday, Aug. 17, 1906)

Regarding the prize which was to be given the prettiest girl at the seventh annual reunion of the U. C. V. Camp Stonewall Jackson, the Canyon City News made the following statement:

"If the judge in this case does reach a verdict and picks out THE ONE of the many that are sure to be there, he had better never run for a public office in this country, nor attempt to establish matrimonial relations with any young lady who was on the grounds and did not have this coveted encomium passed on her wealth of beauty.

"It is to be remembered that any contestant for this premium is not 'supposed' to resort to a 'puff-box' nor allow a 'rat' to approach nearer than ten feet to her for fully ten days befort the trial."

Mrs. B. Frank Buie favored this office with a taste of some of her Elberta peaches Thursday. Three of them weighed a pound and the flavor was excellent.

Reunion time with its excitement, firecrackers and danger is almost here. Wouldn't it be a good time to have some pictures made of Johnnie while he is altogether?

Twenty days in jail and a fine of $10. This was the reward given Wednesday by the county court to a worker from the railroad camp, who was caught by Sheriff Slover with another man's watch in his pocket.

STRAND THEATRE TO BE OPENED AUG. 29

The Strand Theatre on Fifth Avenue will be re-opened for business, August 29, according to J. T. Davidson who along with I. W. Miller has taken over that theater.

A new and larger regular sound screen has been put in. A new talking machine has been installed and the entire auditorium has been treated for sound. The picture projector has been completely overhauled, Mr. Davidson said. The interior of the building has been redecorated also.

The theater will be opened with the showing of "Sweepstakes" which had a two weeks run in Oklahoma City. Mr. Davidson said that only first run pictures would be shown.

Mr. Davidson's and Mr. Miller's families have moved from Oklahoma City and are making their homes in the 2100 block on Sixth Avenue.

COWBOYS BEFORE 1895 TO HAVE REUNION, AUG. 27

J. W. Bradley, representing the old-time cow punchers, is working hard to get the old hands to get to Wragge Park, one mile north of Canyon on the Amarillo highway, for the big T-Anchor ranch round-up and reunion on August 27.

So many folks that have no business there have been going to this annual event, according to Mr. Bradly, that it is almost impossible to find the old-timers, so this year the committee is thinning out the herd and cutting back all the in-laws, grandchildren and curiosity seekers, letting in only those who were workers on a ranch or punched cattle on or before December 31, 1895, their wives or widows and children—and no others.

The committee says they will have experienced "trail cutters" at the gate and it will take a pretty smooth scalawag to get past them.

A big picnic dinner is planned for that day, and those who are entitled to attend may come the night before and camp if they wish, and talk over the old days around the fire.—Hereford Brand.

NATIONAL GUARD RETURNS

Members of Company F, 142nd Infantry, T. N. C., returned to their homes last Sunday after the National Guard Encampment at Palacios ended August 16.
